College Fellows Program

Position Description

Please visit <https://facultyresources.fas.harvard.edu/how-apply> for a list of open College Fellow positions.

The College Fellows Program (<https://facultyresources.fas.harvard.edu/college-fellows-program>) at the Faculty of Arts and Sciences identifies exceptional scholars who have recently completed their doctoral work and have demonstrated excellence in teaching. College Fellows teach within an area of specialization while given ample time to pursue their own research. The program provides College Fellows with mentoring on both pedagogy and career development.

College Fellowships are one-year positions with the possibility of renewal for one additional year. In 2020, they are expected to be on campus starting in August. College Fellows will receive a salary and benefits.

Please visit the Areas of Specialization page on the College Fellows website for information on application deadlines.
