Position

Title

Senior Preceptor in Italian

School

Faculty of Arts and Sciences

Department/Area

Romance Languages and Literatures

Position Description

The Department of Romance Languages & Literatures seeks applications for a senior preceptor in Italian. The appointment is expected to begin on July 1, 2020. The senior preceptor will be responsible for teaching three courses per year at the intermediate and advanced levels. Administrative duties include training and supervising teaching fellows, curriculum development (at all levels), and undergraduate advising and recruitment. The position is for five years and renewable contingent upon performance, enrollments, and curricular need.

Basic Qualifications

The successful applicant should be well versed in the issues of teaching Italian as a foreign language. Preference will be given to candidates who have experience teaching all levels of Italian, coordinating language programs, and training and supervising teaching fellows. Specialization in language pedagogy and second language acquisition is highly desirable. Applicants should have native or near-native proficiency in Italian.

Additional Qualifications

A strong doctoral record is preferred as well as working knowledge of instructional technology.
